

English For Families

Phonics and Beyond

Refresh your literacy skills and support your children with their reading homework.

Do you want to better understand how your child is taught how to read in school?

Do not miss the opportunity to support your children with their learning as they return to school!

Get tips on how to help your child actively learn phonics and improve their reading.

Come and join us online:

“Phonics and Beyond” is a 3-week course for 2 hours starting the 5th October at 10am.

To enrol on the phone, call the college now on:

020 8270 4722

Course number: 6414C

Please have your National Insurance number and your passport or similar ID ready.