

We Are Readers

Eastbury Reading Newsletter October 2020

Thank you Crazy Readers!

What incredibly unusual places you have found to escape away with a good book!

Dale read his Beano comic on top of a hill overlooking views of London, Aiza reads whilst keeping fit on her exercise bike and Ana, Ibra and Eric found the perfect cupboard reading hideyholes! Muslimah, Afnan and Mariam know how to read in peace- don't they look comfy! Can you spot Taylor hiding with his book amongst some plants? Sufyan and Rishad found the bathroom a perfect reading spot whereas Eakam prefers the kitchen! Maja, Hibba and Katrin were caught reading under tables, Noa reads on the train and Mrs Marais and Freddie are not the only ones who like reading upside down!

Can you spot who else does?

News

Year 1 have enjoyed taking part in a weekly carousel of reading activities including phonics games that have helped them to improve in their reading and writing. Mustafa in 1B / ARP is really enjoying reading and loves changing his book every week. He has started to read all the signs and displays around the school! He also helps Miss Y read stories during story time. In Year 2 is Nylah and Ayan have both moved up bands because of their amazing reading skills and their ability to read with expression. KS2 been sharing some great books. For example, 3A are really enjoying Grandpa's Great escape by David Walliams and 4A have been reading Antony Browne books at the end day and say he is one of their favourite authors! Year 5 are loving reading Prometheus and Year 6 have enjoyed Once, by Morris Gleitzman which linked to their WW2 theme in history.

October is Black History Month...

Here are two beautiful books which explore this important subject. The Undefeated shares the brave stories of some of the world's celebrated black heroes.

The Spots and Dots: The Spots live on one side of the hill. The Dots live on the other.

Both are fearful and suspicious of the other, but are they really all that different? When a young Spot and a young Dot meet at the top of the hill, they are about to find out...

Halloween Puzzle

Here's a spooky puzzle for you complete. Unscramble the mixed-up letters to find the secret words. Then use the letters in the grey
