Uniform

- Every child is expected to wear the correct uniform every day.
- Children should be smart and tidy with shirts tucked in and ties on straight.
- Please remember to put your child's name in jumpers so they are not lost.
- Uniform Checks.

If your child is missing a piece of uniform they will on the first occasion be reminded to wear it the next day.

On the second occasion it is not correct a slip will be sent home letting the parent know which piece of uniform was missing or incorrect.

On the third occasion the class teacher will speak directly to the parent.

If it is still incorrect, then a member of the senior leadership team will contact the parent.

PE Kit

- PE kits should be in school from the first day of a new term and left in school till the end of each half term.
- All children are required to take part in PE as it is part of the National Curriculum. Schools are expected to teach the children a range of skills to help support them to lead healthy lives.
- Please make sure all PE KITS ARE LABELLED, as it is hard to locate missing clothing with no names.
- No jewellery to be worn, so children will need to be able to take earrings out themselves.

Attendance

1. Attendance is expected to be at 97%
2. Parents/Carers will be called
3. Letter home
4. Asked to meet with class teacher
5. Meeting with Deputy Headteacher and SENCo

○ Times Tables

Children will need to practice their times tables regularly, so they are fluent in recalling them. It is important for children to be able to work their times tables out, but also important to recall them at speed. Tables are the bases of many calculations and knowing them at speed helps them to work faster and work calculations to complete the test introduced by the Education Department in June.

Remember we are here to help

- Should your child come across anything they do not understand in their homework, remind your child to ask their teacher.
- Write any notes for the teacher and send in to class in the morning if any problems arise.
- And we are of course available at the end of day should any parent need advice, help or support. Please wait till the teacher has dismissed the whole class before approaching.
